

Above—The gathering honors of a man that looms large in the nation's regard. Major-Gen. George Washington Goethals, U. S. A., upon whom Rutgers College has just conferred the degree of doctor of science.

Photo copyrighted by Paul Thompson.

Photo copyrighted by Underwood & Underwood.

These are doubly anxious days for Spain. King Alfonso in conference with his Prime Minister, Senor Eduardo Dato.

Photo by Paul Thompson.

Russian soldiers being appealed to by Gen. Palitsin to fight on and to remain faithful to the Entente Allies until Prussian militarism is crushed.

Capt. Geoffrey Harper Bonnell (on right) an American, with the Royal British Flying Corps, who is here now on recruiting service for the British forces. Capt. Bonnell is said to have shot down in an air duel Germany's famously daring army aviator, Capt. Boelke.

Photo copyrighted by International Film Service.

To Right—Bobby Jones, the fifteen-year-old lad of Atlanta, Ga., who has just won the Southern golf championship. Young Jones startled the golfing world here in the East last year when he played many of the toonotchers to a standstill.

Photo by Central News Photo Service.

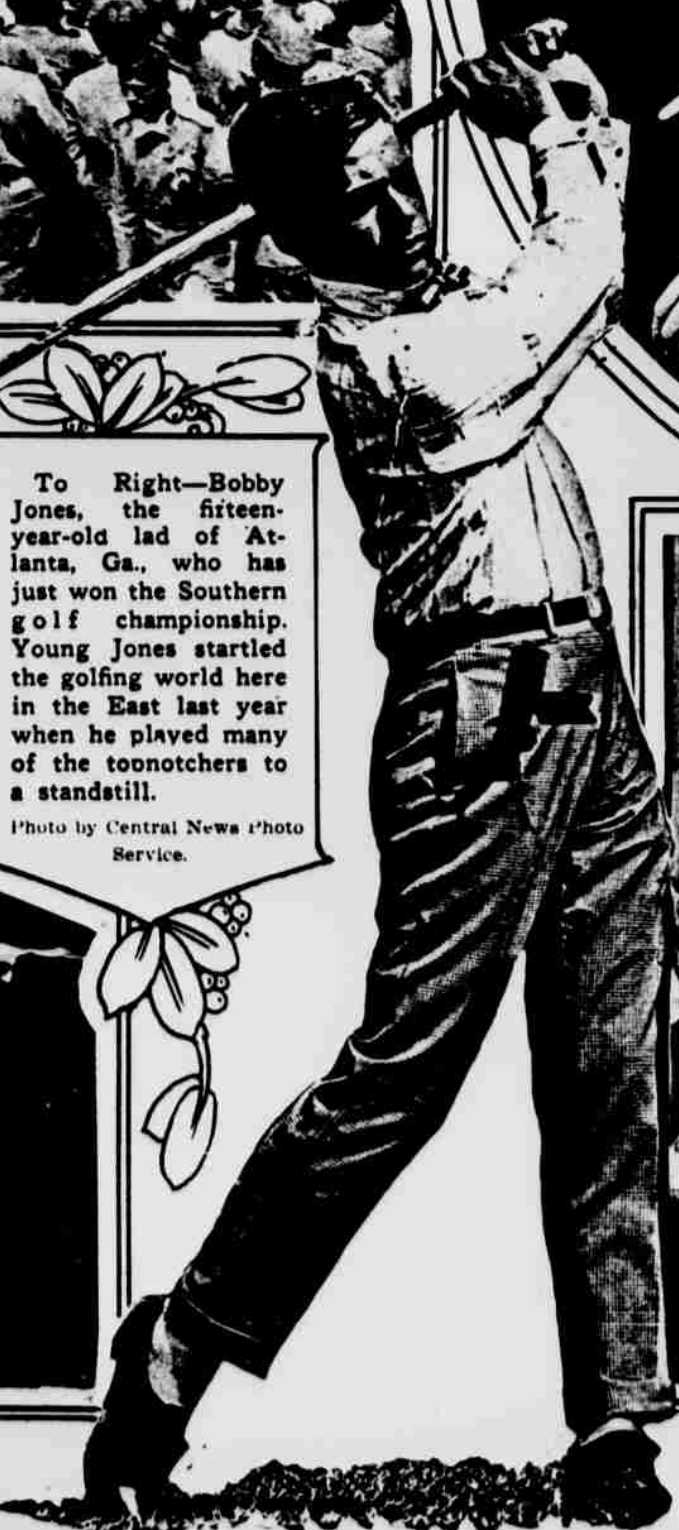

Photo by Central News Photo Service.

Prince Alexander, who has been chosen to succeed to the throne of Greece. He is only 24 years old and the second son of Constantine I., until lately King of the Hellenes. It is assumed that he favors the cause of the Entente Allies.

Lord Northcliffe has come to this country to head the British war mission and to coordinate the work of the various organizations of that Government now established here. The task will call for all of the compelling force of such a man.

Photo by Bain News Service.